

Newmarket Seniors' Meeting Place Presents

Bala Cranberry Festival

The Bala Cranberry Festival, held annually in Bala, Ontario, the self-styled “Cranberry Capital of Ontario”, takes place the weekend after Canadian Thanksgiving. It’s a vibrant three day celebration of the cranberry harvest, combining lively arts, crafts, food, music, and family fun in the charming Muskoka village. Highlights include hundreds of artisan vendors lining Maple Avenue, offering handcrafted goods, fresh cranberries, gourmet foods (like candied berries and crepes), and local products. A fall-fair atmosphere with live performances from musicians and buskers to art expositions and street entertainers. The Bala Cranberry Festival is a unique Muskoka celebration—great for couples, families, and craft lovers, where you can sample cranberry delicacies, enjoy live entertainment, explore fall foliage, and experience rural Ontario charm. It’s an unforgettable fall day trip, and a heartfelt taste of Muskoka community spirit.
